RFA and Application System Updates

Following up on our conversation regarding the revised RFA, we are currently finalizing updates within our Grant Management Cycle (Foundant). We expect these changes to be live on our website by today. Here is the Summary of Changes in the revised RFA.

Application Deadline Extended

As discussed during the call, the new submission deadline for CSP applications is:

Wednesday, May 28th. As such, the corresponding application review process dates and notification of provisional grant awards have also been modified due to this extension.

Additional Office Hours

Tanesha and Bright have extended our office hour availability for the next few weeks to support you. You can sign up for a time using the links below:
